What is After We Collided about?After We Collided is the sequel to 2019 romantic drama After, which was directed by Jenny Gage.That film charted the tempestuous romance of 18-year-old college freshman Tessa Young (Josephine Langford) and brooding British student Hardin Scott (Hero Fiennes Tiffin).Gage isn't back for the second film (directing duties are instead handed to Roger Kumble, who previously directed the Cruel Intentions films), but After We Collided continues the story as Tessa comes to terms with everything she has sacrificed to be with Hardin including study, friendships and a blossoming relationship with nice guy Noah (Dylan Arnold).Former Disney star Dylan Sprouse plays Trevor, Tessa's co-worker at the publishing company she is interning at; like many of the fans watching the film, Tessa is quickly enamoured with him.The closer she looks into the past of her enigmatic beau, the more concerned Tessa becomes that she has made the wrong decision; Hardin must prove her wrong by confronting his past and changing his ways.Despite the film resonating with its fans (it currently holds a 93 per cent approval rating from users on Rotten Tomatoes), it didn't land quite so well with critics (it currently holds a 12 per cent approval rating from professional reviewers.Variety's Jessica Kiang said that while After was "merely awful", After We Collided is "atrocious", and the AV Club's Caroline Siede said that although fans will be pleased with "this slightly campier continuation of the series", for everyone else, "there's not enough innovation to make the second instalment a worthwhile jumping-on point."Not everyone was so down on it though, and Screen Rant's Molly Freeman said the film's "dramatic romance and laughable dialogue offers some escapist fun."When is After We Fell out?In the third instalment, "just as Tessa makes the biggest decision of her life, everything changes."Revelations about her family, and then Hardin's, throw everything they knew before in doubt and makes their hard-won future together more difficult to claim."Filming on the latest film on the series has finished, but no official release date has yet been announced.However, director Castille Landon has confirmed that the film will be released in 2021.The fourth film in the series - After Ever Happy - was shot back to back with the third instalment, so fans shouldn't have too long to wait for that movie either.After We Collided is available to stream through Amazon Prime Video now After We Collided released on streaming services on December 22nd but is the film on Netflix UK? It looks like a few regions will be getting it in December 2020 but not as many as the previous title Here's what we know so far. The adaptations of the book series have been huge hits among teens, despite often being panned by both critics and audiences. Directed by Roger Kumble, the new movie features Josephine Langford, Hero Fiennes Tiffin, and Louise Lombard and adapts the 2014 romance novel. The movie saw a theatrical release in most regions in early 2020 but in the United States, its theatrical release was pushed back to October 23rd, 2020, and will simultaneously release in theaters and via on-demand digital. Netflix also has a working relationship with Voltage Pictures in other areas with the streaming service picking up the global rights (excluding the UK) to Extremely Wicked, Shockingly Evil and Vile last year. Will After We Collided be on Netflix in the United States? Originally we didn't expect to see After We Collided hit Netflix The reason for that was the difference between this movie and After is that it's distributed by a different company making its US Netflix release date hard to predict because we can't at this point even assume it will hit Netflix. The first movie was distributed globally by Avton Pictures but the new movie is distributed by Voltage Pictures in the US. We weren't able to find any press regarding an output deal with their content but we did go through some of their recent movies. However, in late November 2020, we got word via the official Netflix account that Netflix USA would be receiving the movie in December too on December 22nd, 2020. We don't know the release date schedule for every country in the world however we do know when it will be releasing in some. Again, the movie is distributed differently from the first movie with Open Road Films distributing the movie internationally this time around (with Shear Entertainment in the UK as the main exception). The movie premiered in cinemas internationally in early September 2020. On November 25th, 2020 Deadline reported that not all Netflix regions will be getting After We Collided. Netflix UK, France, Italy, and Spain will miss out. They'll be streaming on Amazon Prime in those regions from December 22nd with the exception of Spain where it'll release on January 1st, 2021. Multiple Asian regions in November 2020 have begun showing a release date including Netflix Malaysia, India, and the Philippines. All of these regions are currently expected to see After We Collided added on December 1st, 2020. Release date showing on After We Collided Do you want to see After We Collided hit Netflix?
